For the future of every student

Mission Statement

“African American Parent Council (AAPC) is a group of parents committed to holding VUSD accountable for:

- Nurturing students for academic success
- Promoting positive educational and social experiences for our children
- Building relations within the community to support our children
- Celebrating the strengths and unique experiences of Black students in VUSD.”

The background is a solid blue color with several overlapping, curved, semi-transparent shapes in varying shades of blue, creating a dynamic, layered effect.
